Pastor's Paragraphs

11th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Growing season is in full swing in most of the country. And while my uncle in the Florida panhandle will regale us northerners with enticing stories of picking fresh tomatoes for the past two months, most gardeners are only now seeing the earliest fruits of their labors come to pass: spinach, asparagus, and lettuce. Spinach and lettuce tolerate the cool weather of spring, but a good bed of asparagus takes years to develop. Patience is rewarded with a harvest of crunchy stalks whose flavor surpasses that of any store-bought produce. Aside from corn, beans, and peas-vegetables whose seeds we actually eat-most seeds are tiny specks that belie the immense growth that is contained in their potential.

It is no wonder then that Jesus would use the image of a sprouting seed to describe the kingdom of God. After his death and resurrection, a few followers began spreading the good news about this man who offered salvation. The message sprouted in small communities around the Mediterranean and those adherents to the Way soon began to attract others. Even in the midst of bitter persecution the followers of Christ would refuse to abandon their faith. Like a stubborn, persistent plant, the believers refused to give up. The kingdom would continue to grow.

Even though the message of Jesus is two thousand years old, the kingdom of God still has a lot of room for growth. Like any plant, it needs to be nurtured, watered, and fertilized. That is our work as men and women who believe in Christ. We have to act on the teachings of Jesus in our lives each day. But also like any plant, it is God who gives the growth. We should not be so presumptuous as to think that if we just care for enough poor or preach enough sermons or teach enough children, that the kingdom of God will come about. It will come to fulfillment, but in God's good time.

©LPI

"To what shall we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable can we use for it? It is like a mustard seed that, when it is sown in the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on the earth. But once it is sown, it springs up and becomes the largest of plants."

Mark 4:30-32b

"Some behaviors are always wrong, always incompatible with our love of God and the dignity of the human person...Assisted suicide and euthanasia are not acts of mercy but acts that are never morally acceptable."

Pastoral Plan for Pro-Life Activities USCCB Committee on Pro-Life activities

"Algunas conductas son siempre moralmente malas, siempre incompatibles con nuestro amor a Dios y a la dignidad de la persona. ...El suicidio asistido y la euthanasia no son actos de piedad, sino acciones siempre inaceptables moralmente."
