Parishioners of Immaculate Conception in Tome welcome our new Archbishop, John C. Wester. We pray for him as he leads the Archdiocese of Santa Fe. Farewell to Archbishop Michael Sheehan. May he have a Blessed retirement. Thank you for your service to our parishes and to the Archdiocese of Santa Fe. God Bless both of you.

In an effort to reach out to our brothers and sisters who speak Spanish and are not able to attend Sunday Mass at their parish due to illness, age, or other issues, the Archdiocese offers the transmission of the Sunday Mass in Spanish. This is an archdiocesan ministry offered in collaboration with the Office of Hispanic Ministry and the Office of Worship and Christian Initiation. The Spanish TV Mass airs every Sunday at 6:30 am on Channel 41.

We are looking for parishioners who would like to become Ministers of the Eucharist for the homebound. This ministry entails visiting those who request Communion and it would only be once a week. If you are interested, please call Mary Fresquez at (505) 865-7966. This is very rewarding for the minister as well as the person who is homebound. This may be us someday.

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

"While they were eating, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, gave it to them, and said, 'Take it; this is my body.'" Celebrating the Passover meal was nothing new for the disciples. They shared bread and wine with their families and friends at this special ritual meal every year as a part of their Jewish heritage. But when they were making preparations for this particular sacred supper, they did not know how different this meal was going to be.

On this night, Jesus changed the formula. Instead of hearing only the ancient words of the Passover prayers that his followers probably knew by heart, they heard these new, unexpected, and, frankly, quite dramatic words: "This is my body ... This is my blood." Nobody had ever made such an unusual claim before. But this was more than a statement. It was a command. Not only did Jesus enlighten his disciples about the miracle taking place as the bread and wine became his body and blood, but he also ordered them to "take it."

Being passive observers was not enough. Jesus wanted his followers to be personally involved in accepting and receiving his body and blood.

The gift of the Eucharist that Jesus instituted for all believers at that Last Supper is not just a sign or a symbol of Jesus' sacrifice. It is something that we are called to participate in. He has given us the instruction to take the eucharistic bread--his body hidden within it--and to make it part of ourselves. Through this great sacrament, which we celebrate on today's feast of Corpus Christi, we are able to be united, in a deeply mystical yet truly physical way, to our Lord and Savior. This union brings about the promise in today's Alleluia from John's Gospel: "Whoever eats this bread will live forever."

Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it. He said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many. Amen, I say to you, I shall not drink again the fruit of the vine until the day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God."
Mark 14:23-25

"The fundamental human right, the presupposition of every other right, is the right to life itself. This is true of life from the moment of conception until its natural end. Abortion, consequently, cannot be a human right—it is the very opposite. It is 'a deep wound in society.'"

Pope Benedict XVI, September 7, 2007 Meeting with the Authorities and the Diplomatic Corps, © 2007 Libreria Editrice Vaticana. Used with permission.

"El derecho humano fundamental, el presupuesto de todos los demas derechos, es el derecho a la vida misma. Esto vale para la vida desde el momento de la concepcion hasta la muerte natural. En consecuencia, el aborto no puede ser un derecho humano; es exactamente lo opuesto. Es una 'profunda herida social.'"
