ARCHDIOCESE OF SANTA FE CORONAVIRUS (COVID-2019) & FLU PRECAUTIONS

Due to the severity of the flu season and the international outbreak of the Coronavirus Disease (COVID-2019), the archdiocese will continue the liturgical safety measures and restrictions issued on January 7, 2020. Please read Archbishop John C. Wester's March 3, 2020 statement, "Liturgical Practices During the 2020 Flu Season and the Coronavirus Disease 2019 (COVID-2019) Outbreak" at www.archdiosf.oerg.

New Mexico is one of the states still listed by the U.S. Center of Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) as having widespread flu outbreaks and high influenza-like illness (IOL) Activity.

- ◆ Please stay home if you are sick or are experiencing symptoms. If you are ill, you are not bound by the obligation to attend Mass, including on Sunday. Out of charity to others sick individuals should not attend Mass or other liturgical events.
- ◆ During the Our Father, folded hands are the liturgical norm. Avoid bodily contact.
- ◆ During the Sign of Peace, simply nod your head toward one another. Avoid bodily contact.
- ◆ Communicants MUST receive Holy Communion in the hand. Please do not ask to receive on the tongue. The Archbishop grants dispensation to those who attend the Extraordinary form to receive in the hand during these restrictions.

The archdiocese institutes these directives not to limit expression of faith, but rather as a preventative against widespread and potentially deadly diseases. We continue to pray for all who are sick and affected by these virulent diseases.

With every best wish for the good health of all our brothers and sisters and asking our Lord, the Divine Physician, to bless us during this critical time, I remain Your brother in Christ, Most Reverend John C. Wester, Archbishop of Santa Fe

The Stations of the Cross normally held on Friday have been cancelled. You can still pray the Stations of the Cross at home. Use this time to go back to what we did in the past. Bring prayer time back to the home.

"There is an everyday heroism, made up of gestures of sharing, big or small, which build up an authentic culture of life... Part of this daily heroism is also the silent but effective and eloquent witness of all those 'brave mothers who devote themselves to their own family without reserve, who suffer in giving birth to their children and who are ready to make any effort, to face any sacrifice, in order to pass on to them the best of themselves'... We thank you, heroic mothers, for your invincible love! We thank you for your intrepid trust in God and in his love. We thank you for the sacrifice of your life" (The Gospel of Life 86).

"Está el heroísmo cotidiano, hecho de pequeños o grandes gestos de solidaridad que alimentan una auténtica cultura de la vida. ...A este heroísmo cotidiano pertenece el testimonio silencioso, pero a la vez fecundo y elocuente, de 'todas las madres valientes, que se dedican sin reservas a su familia, que sufren al dar a luz a sus hijos y luego están dispuestas a soportar cualquier esfuerzo, a afrontar cualquier sacrificio, para transmitirles lo mejor de sí mismas'. ...Os damos las gracias, madres heroicas, por vuestro amor invencible. Os damos las gracias por la intrepida confianza en Dios y en su amor. Os damos las gracias por el sacrificio de vuestra vida".

Preparacion Matrimonial En Espanol: Abril 24, 25, 26, Julio 7, 18, 19 y noviembre 6, 7, 8 de 2020. Costo: $65 por pareja. Madonna Hall, Archdiocese of Santa Fe, 4000 St. Joseph's Pl. NW. Para inscribirse o mas informacion llame al 505-831-8147.

The Archdiocese of Santa Fe entered into Chapter 11 Reorganization during the first week of December 2018. The utmost concern is for the victims of abuse. Our prayers are with them.

The Annual Catholic Appeal Foundation is not part of the Chapter 11 filing. ACA is separately incorporated and funding is not available for legal claims. ACA remains a significant source of funding for the ministries and services of the Archdiocese of Santa Fe throughout this process and beyond. Christ's loving work must endure through this. Thank you for continuing to support these efforts.

Fourth Sunday of Lent

“Do you believe in the Son of Man?” Jesus wants to motivate each one of us to see the truth. After developing a relationship with Jesus, the blind man “sees” as someone very special. The Pharisees, due to the blindness caused by their ignorance, prejudice, and need for self-preservation, still remain blind. Presuppositions, prejudices, assumptions, and our needs can easily blind us to truth. We see what we want or need to see and not what is really there. In addition, our stubbornness continues to convince us that we are right and that our vision is perfect. Only God can complete the picture.

Look around at our world. So much of what is happening today is due to the reluctance of folks to allow themselves to be stretched and brought to see what is really there. Many react to what life presents to them more with the lenses of ignorance than lenses of clarity. The Gospel carries great transformative value. With it, God corrects our vision and replaces our limited sight with the fullness of his sight. God opens our eyes so that we can see that it is not about preserving what we have created but of living in the immensity and wonder of God’s kingdom.

Through a simple, loving relationship with God, we can break through the tethers of prejudice, eradicate fear, dispel the darkness of hatred and sin, discover freedom, live in peace, work for justice, be effective stewards of creation, assist the migrant and the immigrant, and safeguard our economic systems and policies so that they truly serve all of God’s children. What we see is often an artificial lie. Our truth is much bigger than what our limited sight believes it to be. Allow God to work in and through you. Do not be afraid. Be open and be humble enough to know that you need help. Many human beings are living with severe cataracts that produce sight that is at best blurred. Are you one of them?

When Jesus heard that they had thrown him out, he found him and said, “Do you believe in the Son of Man?” He answered and said, “Who is he, sir, that I may believe in him?” Jesus said to him, “You have seen him and the one speaking with you is he.” He said, “I do believe, Lord,” and he worshiped him. — J n 9 : 3 5 - 3 8
